Dear Nick:

Here is the bill from my travel agency which means I told you my expenses were a little less than they actually were, but we will let it go. I had in addition approximately 100 miles of car mileage and a $5.00 parking fee.

By now perhaps you have seen the connection betqeen the two "False Oswald" chapters in my two books and what is going on in New Orleans.

Best regards to you all.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
